

Improved Local Anesthesia Outcomes for the Dental Professional: Lecture CE Course – 4 CEUs - Live Online Webinar with Presenter Debra November-Rider

This program will provide the participant with an overview how to troubleshoot anesthesia problems including how to pick the correct local anesthetic to give you outcome. Information on how to prevent and manage both local and systemic complications that can arise from the administration of local anesthesia will also covered. Lecture course. Open to any dental professional. (4 hours, 4 CEUs). Objectives: At completion, participants should be able to:

1. Describe basic troubleshooting principles.
2. Apply troubleshooting techniques for various maxillary and mandibular nerve block injections.
3. Assess causes for inadequate local anesthesia and make recommendations for improvement.
4. Implement strategies to troubleshoot inadequate or absence of local anesthesia.
5. Identify how to choose the safest and most effective local anesthetic for your patient.
6. Describe the different local complications that can arise from the local anesthesia.
7. Identify the causes of adverse drug reactions (ADR) in the administration of anesthesia.
8. Summarize all the causes of a local anesthetic overdose and how to prevent manage it from occurring.

Course Date: Saturday, March 6, 2021 from 9a-1p Live Online Webinar

Course Number: HLT 748-75 Tuition: $89

Presenter: Debra November-Rider, RDH, MSDH

4 CEUs awarded upon completion

Enrollment Deadline: February 19

To Enroll: Call 1800 818-3434

Provide: Course # HLT 748-75, Full Name, Current Home Address, Cell Phone, Preferred Email and Date of Birth

Questions: Email: Career_Training@middlesex.mass.edu